The Grand Elysée Hotel in Hamburg has an almost perfect location. The city of Hamburg, River Alster and Moorweidenpark can all be quickly and easily reached within a few minutes on foot. The Dammtor railway station for Intercity Express (ICE) and suburban trains is also only 300 metres and four minutes' walk away. Travel to and from the hotel by train is therefore made simple. Furthermore, Deutsche Bundesbahn offers special rates for all conference guests at the Grand Elysée Hamburg. As well as culture, museums and ports, the Reeperbahn, musicals and a unique museum landscape attract many worldwide visitors to the city year after year.

With its 5 star status, the Grand Elysée is the number one hotel in Hamburg. The central boulevard in the spacious hotel foyer offers its visitors four restaurants, the Bourbon Street Bar and the Boulevard Cafe. The building also has Hamburg's largest hotel function room, more than 30 exclusive conference rooms and an art gallery. Guests can enjoy daily, atmospheric live music. The hotel's founder, Eugen Block, is proud of the many accolades the hotel has received, such as the awards for Hotelier of the Year, VDR Best Business Hotel and Top Training Institution of the Year. Awards have also been lavished on the restaurants at the Grand Elysée Hotel Hamburg; with their seasonal specialities and popular lunch menus they are among the best restaurants in this famous Hanseatic city.
